Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notices" free any more than a merchant can give away his counter free gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a business. Its stock in trade, and its advertisements should be paid for, do not enter in what part of the paper they appear.

HECHINGER & CO.'S

FALL

Are Shown in Scores of Handsome New Cuts!

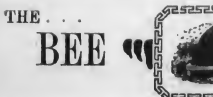

Weavers' wiles were never more versatile in producing attractive loom effects. Skill in wholesale tailoring has made marvelous progress in recent years. No better evidence is needed than a critical inspection of ready-to-wear clothing made for them. There is a nicety of detail, a carefulness of finish, a symmetry of cut that denotes master minds and master hands. This not only has reference to their clothing, but also to their other different departments. Nowhere will you see so handsome a display of gentlemen's Furnishing Goods, fine Shirts, Hats, Collars and Ties as Hechinger & Co. show.

Have You Looked at Their Stock of Smith & Stoughton

SHOES?

Recognizing the needs of their patrons, Hechinger & Co., arranged with Messrs. Smith & Stoughton, one of the most prominent manufacturers of fine Men's shoes in the country, to sell their goods. See their window display of them and you will not wonder that although but thirty days elapsed since the first shipment arrived they are already doing the Men's Fine Shoe business of the town.

WANTS ALIMONY.

Mrs. Professor Edward Fite Finds Some Letters and Then Files Suit.

A special dispatch from Brooklyn says the reigning social sensation in the three counties of Bracken, Mason and Brown is the alimony suit filed by Mrs. Prof. Edward Fite against her husband.

It is stated that the action of the wife of the Professor was precipitated by the contents of three letters found in her husband's clothes.

Two of them are said to have been written by the Professor to a girl, and one had been received by him from her.

Fite has taught school at West Union, O., later at Amelia, O., then at Augusta and late at Minerva, this county. He is a prominent Odd-fellow, a high Mason and belongs to the K. of P. and Redmen's Orders.

JUDGE YOST.

He Addresses a Good Audience at the Courthouse Last Evening.

Judge W. H. Yost spoke last night at the Courthouse in the interest of the National Democracy.

There was a good audience, many ladies being present, and the Judge was so entertaining that nearly two hours slipped away before his hearers were aware of it.

His dissection of the Chicago platform was as complete as was ever made of any other cadaver, and those who were not convinced that it was the work of Populists and not of Democrats belong to the hopelessly lost.

Judge Yost is a splendid specimen of Kentucky manhood—5 feet 11 inches long and 200 pounds wide—and a most earnest and entertaining speaker.

He left this morning for Flemingsburg where he will speak this afternoon.

Dr. H. C. Kehoe of Flemingsburg had his pocket picked by a gang of cunning-fingered thieves at the Lexington Fairgrounds exit Tuesday afternoon, but the alarm was given in time to cause the pocketbook to be dropped.

Today we are authorized to announce Mr. W. E. Stalcup as a candidate for Mayor of our city. Mr. Stalcup is a member of the firm of Smith & Co. Cigar Manufacturers, and is at present Councilman from the Fifth Ward. He is a clever gentleman, thoroughly acquainted with the duties of Mayor, and his past connection with the city's affairs qualifies him for the place.

KICKERS' CORNER

If any one at any time for any reason has any cause to "kick" in any way at anything you may find, here's the place to say his say. The door is open—worth right in and help yourself, free gratis and for nothing—but don't make your "kick" too long and too short, quick follows that count—and cut. The name of the kicker must accompany the kick, or it'll be kicked into the waste-basket.

Somebody has done this. The LEXONER the honor to say that "It can say more mean things than any other paper in the land."

Thanks for the compliment; and THE LEXONER's "meanness" grows out of its contact with a very large number of very mean people.

A newspaper office is the best school-house on earth if one would learn just how mean some people can be.

FIRST WARD MISSION.

School Opened Last Evening With a Good Enrollment of Scholars.

The First Ward Mission School opened last evening with an enrollment of 53 scholars.

The school will be held on Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights throughout the winter months, and the large number who attended last night gave evidence of the eagerness for an education of those people who are compelled to work the entire day for a livelihood.

The Principal wishes it understood that the $100 donated by Council to this worthy cause will not be used to pay his salary, but will go to defray the expense of carrying on this good work. Fuel, light, books and other articles needed in a schoolroom must be supplied, and it is hoped that the people throughout the city will lend their assistance in making the Mission the success it so richly deserves.

Books and clothing for the children are wanted, and parties desiring to donate same can notify the managers, who will see that they are properly distributed. The Mission this year starts out with a most flattering outlook, and ere it closes it will doubtless have done much good for the people for whom it was opened.

Over at Richmond one night last week a man woke up and found a cow on the roof of his residence. A man is likely to see most anything over there considering the quality of "pinetop" dispensed.

Somebody in the West End owns a yellow muley cow and two other cows that are not muleys that encroach upon private property. This is to give notice to the owner to look out for his stock or there'll be a neighbor who will be forced to protect himself.
